| General Business: | Retaining Wall Working Bees: Roger Fuss gave a Working Bee report: There have been three working bees in the last three weekends. A lot of work has been done. 8 Attendees on 20 th March, 7 on 27 th March (a 12 hour day) and 12 on 2 nd April. Roger noted Scott Smith and Rod Reilly as having attended all three of those working bees. Scott Chapman was at two of the three. Their combined efforts have been very much appreciated. Roger moved Scott Chapman be paid an additional $200 (total $400) for the use of his equipment in February and March. Seconded by Murray Crawford. Carried. |

The site has been excavated, a large amount of debris and waste timber has been burnt, holes bored, string lines set and posts concreted. The cover that was over the old sandpit has been shifted to cover the bbq at the boat ramp end. Panels for the retaining walls being poured shortly at likely cost of $9,460.

Still quite a lot to do including lifting the panels into place and affixing. Once installed, backfilling and turfing will also be required as well as re-installing the sprinkler system.
